

DR. DAVID SCHOLL
... Honored

Torrance High Graduate Gets Navy Research Associateship

Torrance High School can boast another famous alum. He's Dr. David W. Scholl, son of William C. Scholl of 815 Beech Ave. and the late Mrs. School.

A 1952 THS graduate, Dr. Scholl is a geological oceanographer. He recently was awarded a postdoctoral research associateship at the U.S. Navy Electronics Laboratory, San Diego, for advanced study in basic research. He is the second scientist to be so honored.

HIS WORK in geological oceanography took him early this year into the mangrove swamps of Florida, and prior to that, to the Bahama Islands.

He recently received his Ph.D. from Stanford University, earning special recognition from various organizations, including a $2,000 grant from Monsanto Chemical Co. Dr. Scholl, who took his B.S.

and M.S. degrees from USC on a Hancock Foundation scholarship, is author of a dozen scientific papers, most dealing with sedimentation and geochemistry. He spent two summers in Alaska with the U.S. Geological survey on projects "Plow Share" and "Operation Chariot" on behalf of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

THE SCIENTIST is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Sigma Xi, Sigma Gamma Epsilon, and the Society of Economic Paleontologist and Mineralogist.

Dr. Scholl's wife, Mary, also did postgraduate work at Stanford, earning her master's degree there. An alumna of Texas Tech, she later spent two years in Spain with the counter-intelligence division of the Office of Strategic Information, U.S. Air Force. She and her geologist husband recently became parents of their first child, a daughter.

Chain Letter Savings Bond Scheme 'Illegal'

The Treasury Department has cautioned Torrance residents against the current rash of a "chain letter" scheme which uses Savings Bonds as bait to lure participants.

"The scheme is not only illegal, but makes flagrant misuse of Savings Bonds," W. C. Eller, state Savings Bonds director said. "For more than 21 years, these bonds have been recognized as an absolutely safe investment, free from elements of risk because the principal and interest are fully guaranteed by our government," Eller continued. "However, these schemes for acquiring Savings Bonds 'for nothing' are indeed a risky gamble."

HE SAID that experience with endless chain schemes over a period of many years is that most participants lose their entire investment. This outcome is inevitable because the supply of interested persons is soon exhausted. The greater the amount to be invested, the sooner the saturation point is reached.

"Some organizers of the new programs imply that the government and banks approve of the idea in order to increase bond sales," Eller stated. "This is not true. The Treasury Department, through the Federal Reserve Bank, has instructed banks and other issuing agencies to reject applications for the purchase of Savings Bonds where the applicant states, or where the issuing agent has reason to believe, that the bonds will be used in the chain letter scheme.

"SAVINGS BONDS are issued primarily for the purpose of enabling individuals and families to save safely and regularly for important long-range goals," Eller said. "The treasury wants to sell as many bonds to as many Americans as possible — but always within the framework of thrift, and not as a vehicle for this or any other 'get-rich-quick' scheme."

Charles W. Mullens Jr., seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mullens, 4540 Carmelwyn St., is serving aboard the guided missile aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk, operating out of San Diego.

The Kitty Hawk is scheduled to depart for the Far East later this year.
